

Statement of Congressman Ron Paul

United States House of Representatives

Statement on Introducing the Parental Consent Act

April 30, 2009

Madame Speaker, I rise to introduce the Parental Consent Act. This bill forbids federal funds from being

The New Freedom Commission on Mental Health has recommended that the federal and state governm

Already, too many children are suffering from being prescribed psychotropic drugs for nothing more than

Universal or mandatory mental-health screening could also provide a justification for stigmatizing childre

Madame Speaker, universal or mandatory mental-health screening threatens to undermine parents' righ